

Working for Texas tuition is no longer feasible

Today's student must clock 55 minimum-wage work hours every week of the year to pay the costs for two semesters at a Texas public university. Here's how that compares to previous years:

2006
55 hours a week

1964
21 hours a week

1992
40 hours a week

1984
31 hours a week
