

For college success, get involved early

Although most first-year students attend orientation or seminar programs upon entering college, many did not take advantage of other services that could have helped them be even more successful.

54%
of students
participated
in a
first-year
seminar

between 40%
and 50%
of students
never used
career
planning,
financial
advising, or academic
tutoring
services

87%
of students
attended a
first-year
orientation
program

Source: National Survey of Student Engagement 2005, Indiana University Center for Postsecondary Research

Edufacts™ provided as a public service by TG. © 2006 Texas Guaranteed Student Loan Corporation

TG™