Applicant Information

Your Application for Employment

We welcome your application for employment with TG. Human Resources carefully considers all applicants. TG is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate in employment practices on the basis of race, religion, color, age, sex, national origin, disability, veteran status or any reason prohibited by local, state or federal regulation.

Testing

If you are applying for a position requiring specific job skills, tests may be administered if you are selected for an interview.

Interviewing and Hiring Procedures

Your application for an advertised position will be reviewed by Human Resources. Qualified applicants may be contacted for an interview. Based upon the outcome of the interview process, a selection will be made and the offer extended by phone.

TG's Code of Business Conduct

TG is committed to conducting all its business activities with honesty and integrity. As such, TG adheres to a formal Code of Business Conduct approved by TG's Board of Directors. The principles included in the code are intended to clarify the standards all TG team members are expected to follow in the workplace. The code is posted on TG's Web site at www.tgslc.org/abouttg/conduct.cfm. A toll-free number is also available to anonymously report any alleged unethical or illegal behavior: (877) 842-6675.

Application on File

It is TG's policy that applications remain active for six (6) months. While your application is in an active status, you may request to be considered for additional positions by submitting a signed letter stating the position(s) for which you wish to apply and your social security number. A new application must be completed after six months. A resume may be submitted for additional information but will not be accepted in place of a completed application.

If any information has changed on your application while it is active, please notify Human Resources by mail.
