TG names two new account executives

ROUND ROCK, TEXAS – Greg Mackey and June Perry have joined TG's relationship management and consulting team as account executives. Mackey will serve as a regional account executive in South Florida and Puerto Rico, and Perry will serve as an account executive for the Dallas area.

Greg Mackey has more than five years experience in higher education and financial aid. Prior to joining TG, he worked as a business analyst, student loan coordinator, and graduate and athletic scholarship coordinator at Florida International University in Miami. Mackey holds a master's degree in public administration and bachelor's degrees in finance and management information systems, all from Florida International University.

June Perry has more than 12 years of financial aid experience and a wealth of knowledge about financial aid programs, including student loans, and has first-hand experience as a user of TG's products and services. She most recently served as the associate director of financial aid at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas. She began her career there in 1993 as an administrative technician in the office of the registrar. She then went on to serve as a financial aid counselor and assistant director of financial aid. Perry holds a bachelor's degree in management and finance from the University of Texas at Arlington.

"Both Greg and June bring a wealth of industry knowledge and solid relationships with customers in their respective regions," said Margie Harvey, assistant vice president of relationship management and consulting. "Their expertise will be an asset to TG's customers."

Mackey can be reached at (800) 252-9743, ext. 2507, or by e-mail at gregory.mackey@tgslc.org. Perry can be reached at (800) 252-9743, ext. 4629, or by e-mail at june.perry@tgslc.org.
