Kathy Campbell joins TG as regional account executive

Round Rock, Texas – Kathy Campbell has joined TG as a regional account executive for California. Campbell has worked for more than 15 years in higher education finance. Throughout her career, she has served in many roles, including academic service representative for Sallie Mae and executive director for regional sales for Chase Bank. Before coming to TG, she held a regional director position with National Student Loan Program.

Campbell is an active member of several financial aid industry trade organizations, including the California Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, the Western Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, the California Community College Student Financial Aid Administrator's Association, and the California Lenders for Education. She also holds a Distinguished Service Award from the Florida Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators for 2003-2004.

"Over the span of her career, Kathy has developed a thorough knowledge of the financial aid industry," said Margie Harvey, TG assistant vice president for relationship management and consulting. "She has worked closely with colleges and universities, demonstrating insight into the needs of schools and a special dedication to the mission of higher education. Her broad experience with schools from across the U.S. will be a great asset to her as she serves TG's customers in California."

Campbell can be reached at (800) 252-9743, ext. 2506, or by e-mail at kathy.campbell@tgslc.org.
